

please do not overturn the do not call list.. most of us have access to the internet and television. we see advertisements for products we want, and receive flyers in the mail for donations and such. phone calls at home, on my private line are a nuisance. i would rather receive "spam" at my email adress than telemarketing calls at home.